ILLINIOS PARK LAW ENFORCEMENT ASSOCIATION

YOUR INVITATION TO JOIN

The Illinois Park Law Enforcement Association membership includes Park Districts, Conservation Districts, Forest Preserve Districts, Conservation Police, Risk Managers, Educators, and other interested park and recreation personnel.

PURPOSE

IPLEA'S purpose is "to promote the advancement of the Park Law Enforcement profession by developing training and educational opportunities for administrators, managers, practitioners and educators involved or interested in aspects of security and protection services in an environmental or recreational setting."

IPLEA, through its affiliation with the Illinois Park and Recreation Association has access to legislation in areas effecting law enforcement in the parks and recreation setting.

Through affiliation with the Park Law Enforcement Association (PLEA), members have a voice in issues at the national level, through education and training forums/programs.

WHY MEMBERSHIP?

Membership in IPLEA is open to all individuals and agencies with an interest in the advancement and support of park law enforcement services.

IPLEA provides a network to help facilitate the exchange of information between park law enforcement personnel and other park and recreational personnel.

Your voice will be more effective because of your association with others who have a common interests and concerns.

IPLEA believes that the importance of human services and protection of natural and cultural resources that parks and recreation areas provide for people, can better served through the continued growth professionally, of persons working in park law enforcement.
